The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne with the moſt heartfelt Emotions of Joy and Exultation.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our deep and awful Senſe of this ſignal Inſtance of the Goodneſs of Divine Providence to theſe highly favored Kingdoms, in reſtoring the Health of our moſt Gracious Sovereign to the ardent Prayers of His People.

Your Majeſty's faithful Citizens of London, at all Times eager to teſtify their Loyalty, are more particularly anxious to offer their renewed Aſſurances of Fidelity and Attachment in a Moment which has reſcued them from Deſpondency, and bleſſed them with an Opportunity to offer the Tribute neareſt their Hearts.

They were all received very graciouſly, and had the Honor to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

Kew Houſe, March 19, 1789.

This Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, and Sheriffs, attended by the Recorder and the City Remembrancer, waited upon Her Majeſty (being introduced by the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold) with the following Addreſs, which was read by the Recorder.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to permit us, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty on the auſpicious Recovery of our moſt Gracious Sovereign.

Impreſſed with the moſt ſympathizing Affections, we have not the Power to convey how much we participate the general Felicity, of which your Majeſty muſt enjoy ſo large a Share.

That the King may long be preſerved in His Sacred and exalted Station, not leſs revered for His Domeſtic Virtues than for the Dominion He holds in the Hearts of a loyal and happy People, is the ſincere Prayer of the Citizens of London.

There never was a Period when the Citizens of London felt the Value of their Privilege to addreſs the the Throne in ſo eminent a Degree as the preſent, which has enabled them to dwell with ſuch heart-felt Emphaſis on an Event ſo propitious to their Country, ſo peculiarly intereſting and effectually conſolatory to the beſt of Queens.

Signed by Order of Court,

William Rix.

To which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt Gracious Anſwer:

I Thank you for this Mark of Duty to the King and Attention to Me. I receive your Congratulations with a ſincere and heartfelt Pleaſure on the preſent joyful Occaſion; and I can aſſure you, that the City of London will ever have My beſt Wiſhes for it's Proſperity and Happineſs.

They were all received very graciouſly, and had the Honor to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

Whitehall, March 21.

The following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor and Commonalty of New Sarum, in Common Council aſſembled, receive with Joy the Intelligence announced to us by the Addreſſes of both Houſes of Parliament, and preſent ourſelves, among the foremoſt of your Subjects, to congratulate with your Majeſty on the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Health.

The gloomy Interval of your Majeſty's Indiſpoſition had led us prematurely to entertain the moſt ſerious Apprehenſions; and the univerſal Affliction which they occaſioned, declares, in a Language which Flattery cannot dare to imitate, but which we repeat with Pride and Satisfaction, that your Majeſty poſſeſſes entirely the Confidence and the Affection of your People.

Impreſſed with a Conviction that your Endeavours are uniformly deſigned for the Welfare of your Kingdoms, and that the poſſeſſing the Affection of your People is a Glory at which you aim, we implore the Almighty to continue to your Majeſty a long and happy Life, a proſperous and eaſy Reign.

Given under our Common Seal this Fourteenth Day of March, in the Twenty-ninth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Delivered by William Huſſey, Eſq; and the Honourable William Henry Bouverie, Repreſentatives in Parliament for that City.]

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipſwich, in the County of Suffolk, in Great Court aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipſwich, in the County of Suffolk, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's Recovery from your late ſevere Indiſpoſition. We, in common with the reſt of your faithful Subjects, with deep Regret felt the Want of your Royal Protection, and fervently offered up our Prayers to the Almighty Diſpoſer of all Things to bleſs your Majeſty with the Return of Health; and we now, with equal Fervor, return our Thankſgiving for His great Mercy in reſtoring to your Majeſty ſufficient Strength to undertake the Fatigue of the Executive Government, which we earneſtly pray your Majeſty may long continue to exerciſe over a free, proſperous and loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal the Eleventh Day of March, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Eighty-nine.

[Tranſmitted by Charles Alexander Crickitt, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff and Grand Jury, aſſembled at the Lent Aſſizes held at Chelmsford, for the County of Eſſex, feel an Emulation to expreſs our early and moſt hearty Congratulations to your Majeſty upon your Majeſty's happy and perfect Recovery from your late Illneſs. This Event hath diffuſed a general Joy amongſt all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, and it gives particular Pleaſure and Satisfaction to us, who revere with Gratitude that Divine Providence by which your Majeſty is reſtored to the Exerciſe of your Royal Functions.

We are truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's Government, and moſt ardently pray, That your Majeſty's Reign may be long, proſperous and happy.

Chelmsford, March 12, 1789.

[Delivered by the Right Honourable Lord Howard of Walden, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the Corporation of Saffron Walden, in the County of Eſſex.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to offer our moſt unfeigned and warmeſt Congratulations to your Majeſty, and to participate in the general Joy and Happineſs which pervade the whole Kingdom upon your Majeſty's perfect Recovery from your late Illneſs.

We implore the Divine Providence to continue to your Majeſty a long Life, with uninterrupted Health; and that, for the further Comfort of your Majeſty and the Nation, Length of Days may be granted to our moſt Gracious and juſtly beloved Queen.

Suffer us alſo to acknowledge the Obligations we lay under to your Majeſty for having made Choice of a Miniſter in the Perſon of Mr. Pitt, whoſe Talents are not leſs diſtinguiſhed than his Integrity, and who, in his Care to preſerve your Majeſty's Rights, has been equally attentive to thoſe of your People.

Given under our Common Seal, this Sixteenth Day of March, One Thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-nine.

[Delivered by the Right Honourable Lord Howard of Walden, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of your ancient City of Briſtol, with Minds deeply ſenſible of Gratitude to the Almighty Diſpoſer of Life

Life and Health, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's Recovery.

The Indiſpoſition with which it pleaſed the Divine Providence to afflict your Majeſty has awakened the Kingdom to a true Senſe of the Happineſs it has long derived from the Health and paternal Affection of ſo dear a Sovereign, and the univerſal Joy which now prevails through the Whole of your Majeſty's Dominions, is a Teſtimony of that deep Affliction which lately oppreſſed your Majeſty's Subjects.

In this general Effuſion of Joy, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, we are not ſurpaſſed by any of your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects. And it is our moſt earneſt Prayer, that your Majeſty may long, very long, enjoy the Bleſſing of Health, to the Glory of the Nation, to the Comfort of our moſt Gracious Queen, and of that moſt Illuſtrious Prince, who, during your Majeſty's late Illneſs, has endeared himſelf to your Majeſty's People by the ſtrongeſt Proofs of filial Affection.

Permit us, Sir, to aſſure your Majeſty, that your loyal Citizens of Briſtol will, on every Occaſion, manifeſt their ſincere and firm Attachment to your Majeſty, and your Illuſtrious Houſe.

[Delivered by Levi Ames, Eſq; Mayor of that City, Sir John Durben and George Daubeney, Eſq; Aldermen, James Hill and John Harris, Eſqrs. Sheriffs, and Samuel Worrall, Eſq; Town-Clerk, accompanied by Matthew Brickdale and Henry Cruger, Eſqrs. the Repreſentatives in Parliament, Sir James Laroche, Bart. and William Gordon, and John Vaughan, Eſqrs.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

DEIGN, moſt Gracious Sovereign, to accept the ſincere Congratulations of your dutiful Subjects, the Maſter, Wardens and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant Venturers of the City of Briſtol, upon the Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health, and your Reſumption of the Reins of Government.

The Preſſure of actual and the Fear of future Evils, ariſing from the State of your Majeſty's Diſorder, plunged your faithful Subjects into the moſt anxious Solicitude, as well for your Perſonal Welfare as for the Intereſts of the Nation at large.

Under ſuch Impreſſions of Mind, we render Thanks to the Almighty King of Kings, who hath ſo ſpeedily reſtored your Majeſty to the fervent Prayers of a grateful People.

May that Providence, which hath repeatedly delivered the Britiſh Nation from the moſt imminent Dangers, preſerve your Sacred Life and Health unto the lateſt Period of Mortality: May it inſpire your Royal Iſſue with a juſt and earneſt Emulation of your Virtues, that ſo that Happineſs which we now enjoy, and that Conſtitution under which we glory to live, may remain to our lateſt Poſterity the Envy of Foreign Nations, and the perpetual Felicity of our own.

[Delivered by Sir James Laroche, Bart. William Jones, George Daubeney, and William Gordon, Eſqrs. accompanied by the Two Repreſentatives in Parliament, and by John Vaughan, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE firm Attachment which we, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and the Reſt of the Common Council of your ancient and loyal Town of Liverpool, have invariably felt for your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, ſince your firſt Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms, added to a due Senſe of the many Bleſſings and Advantages we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government, have cauſed us the more forcibly to lament your Majeſty's late Indiſpoſition, and our temporary Loſs of that kind and paternal Attention by which your Majeſty's Reign has been moſt eminently diſtinguiſhed.

It is, therefore, with Hearts full of Gratitude to the Almighty for your Majeſty's happy Reſtoration to the Enjoyment of your former Health, that we now approach the Throne, in Concert with the Reſt of your faithful Subjects, to congratulate your Majeſty and the whole Empire on this truly joyful Occaſion.

And that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a grateful and affectionate People is our moſt fervent Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal, in Council aſſembled, this Fourteenth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-nine.

[Delivered by Owen Salusbury Brereton, Eſq; Recorder of that Town.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and other Inhabitants of your ancient Town of Liverpool, with chearful Hearts, and moſt unfeigned Affections, take this early Opportunity to approach your Throne, and beſeech your Majeſty to accept our Congratulations upon your happy Reſtoration to Health, and Return to your People.

It is not, Sire, in Words to expreſs the Sorrow of our Hearts, when we ſaw the Life of our Government withdrawn from us. Feeling what we had loſt, your faithful Subjects implored the Father of Mercies to ſpare their King, relieve the Sorrows of His Royal Conſort and Illuſtrious Family, and bleſs His People, by reſtoring your Majeſty to the full Exerciſe of the Government of theſe Realms.

That the ſame kind Providence may continue to preſerve your Majeſty, and that your Reign may be long, proſperous and happy, is our moſt fervent Prayer.

By Order and by the unanimous Conſent and Approbation of the General Meeting convened for the Purpoſe of taking into Conſideration the Propriety of an Addreſs to the Throne upon the King's Recovery.

John Blackburne, jun. Chairman.

Liverpool, March 16, 1789.

[Delivered by the Right Honourable Lord Penrhyn and Bamber Gaſcoyne, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Town.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Launceſton, in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon with our ſincereſt Congratulations on your Recovery from your late Malady.

The Happineſs we had enjoyed under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government rendered us the more ſenſibly affected with an Interruption of it; and and our Joy at your Majeſty's Reſtoration is proportionably great as our Depreſſion has been.

We return our ardent Thanks to the King of Kings for His ſignal Interpoſition and gracious Condeſcenſion to our Prayers; at the ſame Time we cannot but felicitate your Majeſty on an Occaſion, which has ſo clearly proved to you how much the Hearts of all your Subjects are intereſted in your Welfare.

[Tranſmitted by His Grace the Duke of Northumberland, Recorder of that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Steward, Recorder, Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Town Clerk of the ancient and loyal Borough of New Windſor, in the County of Berks.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Recorder, Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Town Clerk of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Borough of New Windſor, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with the warmeſt Affection for your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

At this Time of univerſal Joy and Happineſs diffuſed throughout your Majeſty's Dominions by the bleſſed Interpoſition of Divine Providence, in reſtoring to His faithful Subjects our beloved Sovereign, we cannot ſufficiently expreſs the lively Senſe of Regard and Gratitude we feel for your Majeſty, who, by your Goodneſs, and the Wiſdom of your Councils, have raiſed this Country to it's preſent Glory and Proſperity.

The peculiar Situation of this Borough, which is more immediately under your Majeſty's Protection, particularly calls upon us to ſhew our great Loyalty, and our extreme Joy and Happineſs upon this bleſſed Occaſion, which we cannot ſet forth in Terms adequate to our Feelings.

We fervently pray that your Majeſty may long live and enjoy a Series of uninterrupted Happineſs and Proſperity; and we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that our warmeſt Intereſts are and ever will be engaged towards the Effect of every private Comfort and Wiſh of your Majeſty in your Royal Reſidence among us.

Ordered, That this Addreſs be tranſmitted to the Secretaries of State, to be by them preſented to His Majeſty.

Given and ſigned in Common Hall the 17th Day of March, 1789.

[Delivered by Robert Cole, Eſq; Town Clerk.]

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Fellows, and Maſters of your Royal College of Eton, beg Leave, with all Humility, to expreſs our unfeigned Joy on your Majeſty's Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition.

Conſcious of the many Bleſſings which we experience, in common with all our Fellow-Subjects, under your mild and equitable Government, and impreſſed with a juſt Senſe of thoſe repeated Inſtances of Condeſcenſion with which you have honoured this ancient Seminary of Learning and Religion, we take the Liberty to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, inſtil into the Minds of the Youth committed to our Care, ſuch Principles as may tend to make them good Citizens, and good Men; nor will we ceaſe to offer up our Prayers to Almighty God, that He will continue to preſerve that precious Health, which, in Compaſſion to this Land, it hath pleaſed Him to reſtore; ſo that your Majeſty may long reign not only over the Perſons, but, as you now do, in the Hearts and Affections of a grateful People. Dated in the College of Eton, the 18th Day of March, in the Year of our Lord 1789.

[Tranſmitted by the Reverend Doctor William Hayward Roberts, Provoſt.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Principal Inhabitants of the City and Suburbs of Wincheſter.

IMpreſſed with the deepeſt Senſe of the Divine Goodneſs in reſtoring your Majeſty to the Wiſhes and the Prayers of your faithful, affectionate and loyal Subjects, we beg Leave, (after having acknowledged the Goodneſs of Almighty God in attending to thoſe Prayers) to approach your Sacred Majeſty with Aſſurances of the moſt unſhaken Loyalty, Duty and Attachment, and to entreat, that your Majeſty will believe there is no Part of your Subjects who rejoice more cordially in the happy Event of our again enjoying the Bleſſings of your mild and juſt Government than we do.

The Meaſures which were taken during your Majeſty's unfortunate Illneſs to ſecure your Return to the Perſonal Exerciſe of your Royal Authority, were ſo full of Wiſdom and Juſtice, that we cannot omit this Opportunity of expreſſing our Senſe of them, founded, as we conceive them to have been, in a warm Attachment to the true Principles of the Conſtitution.

That your Majeſty may long reign over a People ſenſible of the Bleſſings they enjoy under your Government, is our ardent Prayer.

Wincheſter, March 17, 1789.

[Delivered by the Right Honourable Lord Wallingford and John Jenkinſon, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Hertford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Hertford, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty to teſtify our moſt ſincere and heartfelt Joy upon your Majeſty's happy and perfect Recovery from your late ſevere Indiſpoſition. We, with all Humility, and the moſt lively Gratitude, return our Thanks to Almighty God for the ſignal Bleſſing of His reſtoring your Majeſty, raiſed from the Bed of Sickneſs, to a loyal and dutiful People, whoſe Anxiety and Solicitude for their moſt Auſpicious Sovereign was evidenced by general Sorrow, and expreſſed in unfeigned Supplications to the Throne of Grace for the Divine Interpoſition in healing their afflicted King. We now, with a due Senſe of the particular Goodneſs of Almighty God, offer up our Thankſgivings for His Condeſcenſion and Kindneſs in liſtening to the Prayers of a diſtreſſed and wounded Nation, and unite in begging of the Author of all Being a long Continuance of your Majeſty's Life in Health and Felicity, together with Protection and Bleſſing upon our moſt Gracious Queen, your Royal Progeny, and every Branch of your Auguſt Family.

By Order of Court,

James Atkinſon, Town Clerk.

[Delivered by John Calvert, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of Scarborough, in the County of York, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with Hearts full of Gratitude to the Divine Being, for mercifully reſtoring your Majeſty to the ardent Prayers of your afflicted People; and humbly to preſent our unfeigned Congratulations on that moſt happy and gracious Occaſion.

Impreſſed with the moſt loyal and affectionate Zeal and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, gratefully ſenſible of your tender Concern for the Happineſs of your People, and of the numerous Bleſſings of your mild and equitable Government, we ardently pray the gracious Providence of the Almighty, to guard and preſerve you, to grant you a full and continued Enjoyment of the ineſtimable Bleſſing of Health, and to enable you to reign with Wiſdom and Piety, for a long Succeſſion of Years, over a dutiful, loyal and happy People.

[Delivered by the Earl of Tyrconnel and George Oſbaldiſton, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Common Council of the Town of Lancaſter, in Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WITH heartfelt Satisfaction, and the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude for the Divine Mercies lately vouchſafed to theſe Kingdoms, we, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Common Council of the Town of Lancaſter, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your Recovery from your late dangerous Illneſs.

The Preſervation of your Majeſty's juſt Rights, and the ſteady Adherence to the true Principles of the Conſtitution, during the long and melancholy Suſpence the Nation was in, between Hope and Fear, for the Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health, are entirely owing to the ſpirited Exertions and conſummate Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Miniſters, aided and ſupported by the great Council of the Nation.

The univerſal Deſpondency ſhewn on your Majeſty's Account, however grievous it may have been, is yet the Means of enabling your Majeſty to know, beyond a Poſſibility of Doubt, how much you have reigned in the Hearts of your People; and that you are beloved by every good Subject in a Manner unexampled in former Ages, and will, we truſt, be an inconteſtible Proof to future Times, and future Princes, that a due Obſervance of the Laws and the Rights of the Subject will be the only ſure Title to the unbounded Love and unſhaken Fidelity of a free and loyal People.

That the King of Kings may long, very long, continue your Majeſty in perfect Health, a Bleſſing to this Nation, is the ardent Wiſh of us your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt loyal, and moſt loving Subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of the Town of Lancaſter this 12th Day of March, 1789.

[Tranſmitted by John Fenton Cawthorne, Eſq.]

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

And while we expreſs our Gratitude to Almighty God for this merciful Interpoſition to theſe Kingdoms, we earneſtly pray, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long, happy and glorious, over a free and loyal People.

That your Majeſty may reign long and proſperouſly over a free, happy, loyal and grateful People, and that the Scepire of theſe Kingdoms may be tranſmitted, through your Majeſty's Royal Progeny, to the lateſt Ages, is the moſt ardent Wiſh of your Majeſty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of your Burgh of Ayr.

The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Excellency was pleased to make the following Speech.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WITH the most heart-felt Satisfaction I take the earliest Opportunity to inform you, in Obedience to the King's Command, That it has pleased the Divine Providence to remove from Him the severe Indisposition with which He has been afflicted, and that by the Blessing of Almighty God He is now again enabled to attend to the urgent Concerns of His Kingdoms, and personally to exercise His Royal Authority.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have submitted to His Majesty's Consideration the Supplies which you have already granted for the immediate Exigencies of the Public Service, and the Performance of the National Engagements; and I am commanded by His Majesty to express His perfect Confidence in your Readiness to make such further Provision as shall be necessary for the usual Support of His Majesty's Government.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have it particularly in Charge from His Majesty to assure you, that the Prosperity of His faithful and loyal People of Ireland, from whom His Majesty has repeatedly received the strongest Proofs of affectionate Attachment to His Sacred Person, will ever be near to His Heart; and that His Majesty is fully persuaded, that your Zeal for the Public Welfare will enable Him to promote, by every wise and salutary Measure, the Interests of this Kingdom.

I cannot conclude this Communication to you, without expressing my fullest Conviction, that His Majesty's faithful Parliament of Ireland does not yield to any of His Subjects in sincere and devout Acknowledgements to Almighty God for the Restoration of His Majesty's Health, and in fervent Prayers, that a long Continuance of that Blessing may secure to His People the Happiness which they have constantly enjoyed under His Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

We gratefully acknowledge your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in the Aſſurance you have been pleaſed to give us, that the Proſperity of your loyal and faithful Subjects of this Kingdom muſt ever be near to your Heart.

We ſhall endeavour to juſtify the Confidence which your Majeſty is pleaſed to repoſe in your Parliament of Ireland, by a cheerful concurrence in ſuch wiſe and ſalutary Meaſures as may enable your Majeſty to fulfil your Gracious Intentions of promoting the General Intereſts and Happineſs of all your Dominions.

Your Majeſty entertains a juſt Confidence that we ſhall cheerfully proceed in making ſuch Proviſion as may be neceſſary for the honorable Support of your Majeſty's Government.

We ſhould be dead to every generous Feeling, ſhould we omit to acknowledge your Majeſty's unceaſing Solicitude for the Intereſts of Ireland, or to ſecond, by every ſalutary Effort, your benevolent Wiſhes for the Welfare of your People. The numerous Bleſſings derived to this Kingdom from your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign are deeply imprinted in our Boſoms, and ſenſible as we are of the ineſtimable Value of theſe Benefits, we beg Leave to repeat to your Majeſty, upon this joyful Occaſion, our moſt ſincere Profeſſions of Reſpect and Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Family and Government.
